- b. Elvis
- c. A tour bus full of 80-year-old women
- d. Muslim male extremists between the ages of 17 and 40 strained by the invasion of infidels on their soil and unable to attend US universities on scholarship. One of the participants in the seizure of the embassy may have been Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, the current President of Iran who holds a Ph.D. in traffic and transport engineering from Tehran University of Science and Technology and was a 23-year old student at the time.

4. Shortly after the Tehran experience, in late 1979, Americans began to be kidnapped and killed throughout the Middle East. America could do little to protect her citizens living and working abroad. These multiple incidents of kidnapping were perpetrated by:

- a. Disgruntled Americans living abroad.
- b. Deranged capitalists
- c. American university students with a grudge.

d. Muslim male extremists mostly between the ages of 17 and 40 encouraged by the weak response of America against the US Embassy take over in Tehran. Thirty U.S. and other Western hostages kidnapped in Lebanon alone by Hezbollah during this period. Some were killed, some died in captivity, and some were eventually released. Terry Anderson was held for 2,454 days.

5. During the early 1980's a number of Americans were kidnapped in Lebanon by:

- a. John Dillinger
- b. The King of Sweden
- c. Boy Scouts
- d. Muslim male extremists mostly between the ages of 17 and 40 because the religion of peace doesn't consider kidnapping a crime.

6. The gunman who tried to kill Pope John Paul II by shooting him four times on May 13, 1981 was released from prison on January 12, 2006. Eight months later, on the 21st of September 2006, this same individual warned the new Pope, Pope Benedict XVI, not to ever visit Turkey, saying his life could be in danger. Following the attempt on John Paul II, the bullet-proof Pope-mobile is employed during publically attended events. This person attempting to kill Pope John Paul and Threatening Pope Benedict was:

- a. An 84-year old Swedish grandmother
- b. Arnold Schwarzenegger
- c. Billy Graham
- d. A Muslim male extremist by the name of Mehmet Ali Agca, who was between the ages of 17 and 40 because his religion of peace permitted it. Quran 9.33 says clearly, "He it is who sent his Apostle (Mohammed) with guidance and the religion of truth, that He might cause it to prevail over all religions, though the polytheists (Roman Catholics) may be averse." He is currently in prison in Turkey for the murder of a journalist.

7. In April of 1983 a large vehicle packed with high explosives was driven into the US Embassy compound in Beirut. This constituted another attack on American soil. When the vehicle exploded, it killed 63 people. This vehicle was driven by:

- a. Janet Napolitano
- b. Nancy Pelosi
- c. Two despicable co-conspirators: Joe Biden and Harry Reid
- d. Muslim male extremists mostly between the ages of 17 and 40, because blowing things up is not condemned by the religion of peace.

8. Just six short months later on October 23, 1983, a large truck heavily laden down with over 12,000 pounds of TNT smashed through the main gate of the US Marine Corps headquarters in Beirut and 241 US servicemen are killed. Simultaneously, another suicide bomber driving another large truck similarly laden with explosives drove into the French military barracks in Beirut killing 58 French paratroopers who were also part of the Multi National Peacekeeping force. The attacks successfully led to the withdrawal of the Multi-National Peace Keeping Forces from Lebanon. There was no serious retaliation for the Beirut bombing from the Americans or the French. The US Marine barracks and the French Barracks in Beirut were blown up by:

- a. A pizza delivery boy
 - b. Pee Wee Herman
 - c. Geraldo Rivera (but when he was known as Jerry Rivers)
 - d. A 17-year old Muslim male extremist dressed in a flowing white funeral robe.
- According to intelligence sources, he had attended his own funeral earlier and was praised by his family as a martyr. There was no turning back for this young boy. The Marine Corps corporal who saw him speed past his checkpoint in the early morning of that fateful day noticed that he had a blissful smile on his face. Blowing things up is not condemned by the religion of peace, and killing infidels is rewarded with 76 virgins in Paradise.

9. Two months later on December 12, 1983, and emboldened by the effectiveness of this tactic in Beirut, another truck loaded with explosives was driven into the US Embassy in Kuwait and a second truck was driven simultaneously into the French Embassy in Kuwait. The 90-minute coordinated attack on two embassies, the country's main airport and oil refineries, was more notable for the damage it was intended to cause than what was actually destroyed. What might have been "the worst terrorist episode of the twentieth century in the Middle East," succeeding in killing only six people because of the bombs' faulty rigging. This truck is driven by:

- a. Second amendment lunatics
- b. Radical Christian extremists
- c. Enraged oil executives intent on removing a major competitor.
- d. Muslim male extremists mostly between the ages of 17 and 40. The mastermind of the bombing, Jamal Jafaar Mohammed, was sentenced to death in Kuwait for the 1983 bombings of the U.S. and French embassies, but now sits in Iraq's parliament as a member of Prime Minister Nuri al-Maliki's ruling coalition, according to U.S. military intelligence. Jamal Jafaar Mohammed's seat in parliament gives him immunity from prosecution. Washington says he supports Shiite insurgents and acts as an Iranian agent in Iraq.

10. The following year, on September 20, 1984, another van was driven into the gate of the US Embassy in Beirut. Following the earlier attack in April 1983, the embassy was moved to a supposedly "more secure location" in East Beirut. However, on September 20, 1984, another car bomb exploded at this embassy annex, killing twenty Lebanese and two American soldiers. The use of suicide bombing increased dramatically following this incident. This van attacking the sovereign American soil of the U.S. embassy is driven by:
